OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The maps reduced from the Ordnance Survey Sheets of Scotland are deserving of a special word of praise, both on account of the care and skill with which they are delineated, and for the handy, portable shape in which they are issued. The scale—half-an-inch to the mile—is sufficiently large to allow of every farm, patch of wood, streamlet, or eminence likely to attract the notice of the tourist being plainly denoted; and Mr John Bartholomew has shown excellent judgment, as well as bestowed great pains in selecting the materials for the maps from the larger sheets. The heights of all the noteworthy eminences are given, but the roads and byeways of the country are indicated with special care. The result is a map at once clear, full, and accurate, and having the additional recommendations of being well mounted, tastefully tinted, and of convenient size."—Scotsman, 26th May 1875.

"We speak advisedly when we say that these maps are the only existing tourists' maps that can be depended upon for the exact distance from place to place marked on them. Not one of the hundreds of cheap maps even pretend to accuracy in this respect. . . . They will at once supersede all existing maps for the purposes of the tourist."—Courant.

"After a most careful scrutiny of the many points and places of interest on the West Coast, we can testify to the skill and accuracy of Mr Bartholomew; while it is an additional recommendation that the delicacy and clearness of the engraving render the maps pleasant to the eye."—North British Daily Mail.

SELECTIONS FROM OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We can heartily recommend the 'Handy General Atlas.' The maps are clear and easy of reference; while we have found by constant use that the selections of names is most judicious. The volume will prove useful to all readers of newspapers and popular books of travel."—Athenæum.

"We would especially desire to notice the 'Handy General Atlas,' illustrating Modern, Historical, and Physical Geography. It is really a most valuable work, and contains much matter which has not been set out in the same form."—Westminster Review.

"We have been at some pains to examine the maps and test the accuracy of the Index, and we must pronounce the work in every respect excellent."—Liverpool Albion.

"The 'Handy General Atlas' is a very excellent work."—Scotsman.

"The maps are remarkable for the clearness and accuracy of their execution, and embody the latest territorial changes, and the results of the most recent discoveries."—Courant.

THE present issue of the GLASGOW POST-OFFICE DIRECTORY has greatly increased, so that it now contains 80 closely printed pages of Names more than that of last year.

In the Street Directory (pages 555 to 777) the names of the intersecting streets are given in ordinary type, and the number affixed to the name of the Street denotes the Municipal or Parliamentary Ward; and where a Street is divided into several Wards, such as Buchanan Street, the numbers belonging to each Ward are given at the top, viz.: from 1 to 275 are in Ward 8, from 2 to 210 in Ward 7, from 220 to 314 in Ward 5, and from 283 to 295 are in Ward 10. It is hoped that this arrangement will facilitate the finding of the Ward in any Street of the City.

At pages 53 to 74 the names of the Streets are given with reference to their situation, and the number affixed to each Street indicates the Registration district, while the Italic letters prefixed to the name of each Street, Square, or Place, shows its position on the Large Map, which has been traced in Half-mile Squares, with similar letters on the margin at each side. Thus to find out Montgomery crescent, marked B a, take the line B from top or bottom, and the line a from the sides, and trace till they meet, and within that square the place wanted will be found. To find College Station, marked G e on list, take G from top or bottom, and e from side, and trace in a similar way, and the Station will be found within the Half-mile Square where G and e meet.

The Map has been revised to date by John Bartholomew, Esq., showing the New Tramway Lines and other improvements, and is again placed at the end of the Directory, so that it can be kept open while the Directory is being examined.

In the Appendix will be found Tables with despatches and arrivals of Mails, Lists of Post Towns, Post-office Regulations, Telegraph information, &c., Banking Houses and Branches in Scotland, Names of the Members of Parliament for Scotland, Local Institutions, Carriers' Quarters, with hour of departure, &c.

The publishers return thanks to the gentlemen connected with the various Local Associations for their kindness in supplying much useful information. They also beg to thank their numerous subscribers for the patronage bestowed on the work for the long period of fifty-three years.

The printing has been done, as formerly, by Mr. Mackenzie, Howard Street, and the binding by Messrs. Gowans & Gray, Ann Street.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a list of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Act 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97 (amended by 34 Vict. c. 4, and 34 and 35 Vict. c. 103), with the Duty on Policies of Sea Insurance, Letters Patent, Patent Medicine, and Plate, and Inventory, Legacy, and Succession Duties, which remain under the former Acts. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule. New matter is put within brackets. When the sections are merely cited without the Act, they are the sections of 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97. All items in the schedule of the Act relating solely to England and Ireland are excluded. In the same session were passed the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. c. 98, Stamp Duties Management, and 33 and 34 Vict. c. 99, repealing certain enactments relating to the Stamp Duties.

The Act 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97, came into operation on 1st January, 1871, and by § 3 the exemptions in other Acts in force are preserved.

The attention of the public may be directed to the following matters:—

1. The general deed duty, or duty on a deed, not otherwise charged, is reduced to 10s.

2. Progressive duty on words is not imposed.

3. Provisions are made for charging ad valorem duty on conveyances in respect of periodical payments or annuities.—(§ 72.)

4. An agreement for a lease for a term not exceeding thirty-five years is to be charged with the lease duty.—(§ 96.)

5. An instrument chargeable as a lease in consideration, in whole or in part, of produce or other goods—

Where it is stipulated that the value shall amount to or not exceed a given sum, ad valorem lease duty on such sum.

A statement in the lease in regard to the value of such produce or goods to be conclusive as to stamp duty, unless and until shown to be incorrect.—(§ 97.)

6. A notarial instrument is liable to the same duty as an instrument of seisin—to wit, 5s.

7. Any instrument specifically charged by any previous Act with the duty of 35s., is chargeable with the duty of 10s.—(§ 4.)

8. Instruments relating to the property of the crown, and to the private property of the sovereign, are liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision is made to the contrary.—(§ 5.)

9. Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of material.—§ 7 (1.) Every instrument on the same piece of material is to be separately stamped.—§ 7 (2.)

10. Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 8 (1.) An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 8 (2.)

11. An appropriate stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 9 (1.) An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 9 (2.)

12. All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, penalty on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—(§ 10.)

13. Instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of money in foreign or colonial currency, the duty to be calculated on the value in British currency, according to the current rate of exchange at the date of the instrument.—(§ 11.)

14. Instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of stock or marketable security, the duty to be calculated on the value, according to the average price at the date of the instrument.—(§ 12.)

15. If the instrument contains a statement of the current rate of exchange, or average price, and is stamped accordingly, it is to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that the instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—(§ 13.)

16. The duties apply to instruments executed in the United Kingdom, and to instruments wheresoever executed, relating to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in the United Kingdom.—(§ 17.)

17. No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be pleaded or given in evidence, or admitted to be good, useful, or available in law or equity, unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—(§ 17.)

18. If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, penalty, £10.—(§ 22.)

INVENTORY DUTY.

PROPERTY LIABLE TO THE DUTY.—Generally—

All personal property (heritable securities are personal property) belonging to the deceased in the United Kingdom, heritable securities, and personal bonds excluding executors.—(48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38, &c.; 55 Geo. III. c. 184, Schedule, Part III.; 21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, § 9, 12, 13, &c.; and 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8.)

Personal Property—Absolute power of disposal.—Personal estate which a person, dying after 3rd April, 1860, shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or movable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty.—(23 Vict. c. 15, § 4.)

Indian Promissory Notes—Ships.—Indian Government promissory notes and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for the purpose of such registration before the death of the owner; also Indian Government promissory notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate, and bona notabilia in England of the deceased person (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1); also any ship, or any share of a ship, belonging to a deceased person, registered in any port in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding such ship at the time of the death may have been at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port at which she may be registered (27 and 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

Specialty Debts.—For probate and administration duty, debts and sums of money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of the deceased within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England or Ireland, in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death.—(25 Vict. c. 22, § 39.)

Foreign Bonds and Stocks.—Documents of the debts of foreign governments and foreign companies which pass from hand to hand are property where the documents may be. Debentures or bonds by foreign companies and governments, and the title to stocks of foreign companies and governments, are property in this country, if in the possession of any person in this country, and can be sold in the market, and the title of the purchasers completed to them in this country.—See Attorney-General v. Bouwens, 4 Meeson & Welsby, 171.

Rents of Heritage.—If the deceased survive Whitsunday, one moiety of the rents of the crop of that year is personal estate. If he survive Martinmas, the whole rents of that crop fall into the executry. In addition, from and after 1st August, 1870, the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. 1870, c. 35, would seem to give the executor a proportion of the rents from the term preceding the date of death to the date of death. That Act would also seem to give a proportion of the term's rents of quarries, minerals, and houses, and also feu-duties current at the death. The executor's right to house-rents would not therefore be to the half-year's rents current at death, but to a proportion only to the date of death.

MODES IN WHICH DUTY MAY BE PAID.—When deceased domiciled in Scotland.—In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland, having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory required to be recorded in the Sheriff Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property situated in Scotland, including heritable securities made movable by the Act 31 and 32 Vict. c. 101, § 117, and duty may be paid on a "special inventory" of the heritable securities excluding executors and personal bonds excluding executors, and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

When deceased domiciled furth of the United Kingdom.—In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.

RETURN OF INVENTORY DUTY

The inventory duty and probate and administration duty are paid on the whole personal property, without deduction of debts; but the Act 5 and 6 Vict. c. 79, § 23, provides for a return being given on proof of the constitution and payment of the debts. This return must be claimed within three years; but the time will be prolonged on application to the Board of Inland Revenue. No return to be granted in respect of a voluntary debt due from a person dying after 28th June, 1861, expressed to be payable on death of such person, or payable under an instrument which shall not have been bona fide delivered to the donee three months before the death of such person. (24 and 25 Vict. c. 92, § 3.)

Note.—Forms of inventory and additional inventory will be found in the Juridical Styles, vol. iii., App. 8-11. Forms of inventories, and also regulations for return of inventory duty, may be obtained at the Office of the Solicitor, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh. Claims are to be lodged in the Solicitor's Office, Room No. 9, and Monday and Friday between 12 and 2 o'clock are the days for receiving claims from the claimants or their agents.

LEGACY DUTY.

Legacies, Annuities, Residues, &c.

	Duty per cent.
To children or their descendants, or lineal ancestors, - - -	£1 0
Brother or sister, or descendants, - - -	3 0
Uncle or aunt, or their descendants, - - -	5 0
Grand uncle or aunt, or descendants, - - -	6 0
All other relations or strangers, - - -	10 0

The husband or wife of the deceased is not chargeable with duty. If the legatee's husband or wife is of nearer consanguinity than the legatee, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51, § 11.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or movable estate, or out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any estate which he has power to dispose of, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy: And also for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate, directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument.

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); and annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, although each or either may be separately under that amount.

Duty on legacies and residues in arrears, interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9).

Printed forms and regulations for payment of the legacy duty may be obtained gratis, on application at Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh; and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.

SUCCESSION DUTY.

(16 and 17 Vict. c. 51.)

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May, 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and movable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY is charged on the annual value, after allowance of the necessary outgoing (s § 22), as an annuity for the life of the successor (s 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty according to the value of the succession; and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is charged as personality (s 1).

RATES OF SUCCESSION DUTY.

 Brothers and sisters of the predecessor and their descendants, £3 per cent.
 Brothers and sisters of the father or mother of the predecessor and their descendants, £5 per cent.

 Any other person, £10 per cent.

The husband or wife of predecessor is not chargeable with duty (s 18), and if successor's husband or wife shall be of nearer consanguinity than the successor, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship (s 11).
